This message came from outside your organization.

Naiara,

Given the late hour (especially on the east coast), I'm not going to be able to say we consent or come up with any agreed upon hearing dates tonight.

Can you please indicate that you reached out to Plaintiffs this evening and our position is:

"Plaintiffs will review Google's Motion to Quash once it is filed and will then determine Plaintiffs' position on both Google's Motion to Quash and Google's Motion to Shorten Time at that time."

Thanks,
Alison

We are willing to consider dates that work for your team if you'd like us to suggest a date. The only remaining dates after your opposition and before trial are August 7 and 14, and we would also include a request for any other date at the Court's convenience.

The motion to quash is based on the apex doctrine.

So it doesn't appear that you suggest any dates or deadlines?

Also, what are the grounds for the Motion to Quash? Are they different than your MIL?

Can you please attach the draft so that we can know what you are proposing to the Court for the shortened timeframe?

Subject: Motion to Shorten Time for Hearing on Google's Motion to Quash

Counsel,

We will be filing a motion to quash the subpoena issued to Kent Walker today. Because the 35 day notice period required under the Local Rules takes us to the second week of trial, we will also be concurrently filing a motion to shorten time for the Court to hear the motion before the trial commences. We will also waive filing a reply brief to accommodate the expedited hearing. Please let us know as soon as possible whether we have your consent, or if you will oppose the motion to shorten time.

Thanks,
Naiara
